The Bible: A Sign for Life

My wife, Kate, and I live in a divided household. That's right, every day we wake up and go our separate ways. She jumps into the car and heads into Alma and St. Louis, where she works for the Gratiot Isabella RESD and I roll out of bed, grab our four kids, and come up to Monitor for work at Trinity while our kids attend school.

As I have made my way north from our home in Shields, I have been astounded by the number of roads being worked on in the Tri City area. I am truly blown away by the number of signs I saw along the road. Not just the normal signs like "Yield, One Way, No Passing Zone, Slippery When Wet, and Stop", but also all the construction signs like "Construction Zone, Merge, Slow, Men at Work, Detour, Stay in Lane and Fines Double." It was almost unbelievable! With all the sign reading and lane merging, it actually makes it hard to do the one thing I was supposed to do: drive.

But as we all know, signs on the road aren't meant to be a distraction, but they are supposed to help guide you to your destination. And we must admit, without the aid of signs it would be difficult if not impossible to find your way to where you are going and arrive safely to your destination while driving. We truly need signs to tell us where we are going.

While Jesus was here on earth, He performed many signs and wonders that helped point us in the right direction. He turned water in to wine, He healed the sick, He gave sight to the blind, He raised the dead to life, He fed the five thousand, and of course, he was raised back to life after His crucifixion. Jesus did these miraculous signs and wonders for our benefit. He wanted to make it abundantly clear to us that He was Who He claimed to be, that is, the Son of the Most High. Jesus was and is God Himself. All signs point to Him and His sacrifice.

The signs are not limited to the ones that Jesus performed, however. God still gives us signs and wonders today that may go unnoticed or written off as coincidence. The problem is that we aren't always looking for them. We may be distracted. When we do see amazing things occur, we need to keep in mind the words of Romans 8:28. "And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love Him, who have been called according to His purpose." You see, God is at work in all of the events that surround our lives, and He works for the good of those who love him.

So what about it, has God been working in your life? Has God be doing some road construction in your soul? I want to encourage you to open your eyes to the Lord's work in your life. God fills our lives with signs; signs that point to His existence, signs that point to His love; signs that point to His Son. Signs found throughout His written word, the Bible, which point us to Jesus. The only question is, are we paying attention?

Giving Cheerfully

In the Old Testament, the people knew what God expected them to give because He commanded the people to tithe, which required the people to give one-tenth of their harvest or produce (income) to the Lord. As New Covenant Christians, we have the freedom to decide what to give, but we are expected to give cheerfully. “Each one must give as he has decided in his heart, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver” (2 Corinthians 9:7). Giving is not to be based strictly by the percentage we give to the Lord but by the largeness of our hearts toward God. God appreciates bighearted people who give their money to Him cheerfully. It’s not always easy to give cheerfully, because we need to spend money on rent or mortgages, food, and clothing, and we would like to take some nice family vacations or drive newer cars, etc. It is tempting to scrimp on generosity or to give with a frown.

Our human spirit has been profoundly twisted by Adam’s sin, and this present world is a hard place to live. There is only one way that we can rise above those circumstances to live a new life where generous and cheerful giving is the norm and not the exception. In order for us to do this, we must have a personal faith relationship with Jesus Christ and day after day tap into God’s rich supply of life-changing grace. The only power that can consistently overcome the sin nature that still clings to each of us is the cross of Jesus Christ.

The Apostle Paul declared this Gospel truth in Galatians 2:20. He emphasized, “I have been crucified with Christ and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me.” If we believe in Jesus as our Savior and Lord, then our sinful flesh has been nailed to the cross with Christ, and the self-absorbed and fearful human ego no longer has any right or power to direct how we as Christians live. We can take this truth and apply it to the way we give. Through faith, we are empowered to withstand our flesh and the world who wants us to spend more of our money on things of this world and to give less to God. When we place our trust in God, we can honor Him by giving cheerfully.

As new covenant Christians, we give under grace so we are free to decide in our hearts and minds how much to give. Cheerful givers experience giving as a privilege. Giving changes from a “got to” give to a “want to” give.

Cheerful giving comes from new hearts that God through His Holy Spirit has changed. Giving is to be inspired and voluntary, not an obligation or only out of necessity or possible recognition. Giving is an outward expression based on an inner conviction. Through faith, we understand that we are God’s instruments through whom He works to help people in need, to support His Church, and to extend His kingdom. May God find us willing and cheerful to use our time and money to do His work.

Rejoice in the Lord

In Philippians 4:4, we read Paul’s words, “Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, ‘Rejoice.’” This is a very emphatic directive because “rejoice” is followed by “always” and it is repeated “again I say rejoice.” If our lives are not expressing our joy, or if we’ve given up on happiness, we’re missing out on what God intends for us. In the words of Charles Spurgeon, “God made human beings as He made His other creatures, to be happy...They are in their right element when they are happy.” In his book Happiness, Rev. Randy Alcorn writes the following: “C. S. Lewis said, ‘It is a Christian duty... for everyone to be as happy as he can.’ Happiness is a privilege. However, since God repeatedly calls upon to rejoice, delight and be glad in Him, we have both a privilege and an obligation to do so.”

The Classroom Chronicles

September 2025

Make a joyful noise to the Lord, all the earth; break forth into joyous song and sing praises!

-PSALM 98:4

It is wonderful to have our students back in the building! The quiet halls of summer have been replaced with the joyful sounds of children's laughter, friendships being renewed, and new lessons being learned. We are so excited for all the wonderful things this school year holds for our students, teachers, and staff.

This year, our theme is "Make a Joyful Noise" based on Psalm 98:4. This verse reminds us to celebrate and worship God with all the joy in our hearts. We believe that this isn't just about singing loudly in church. It's about bringing a spirit of joy to everything we do—from our classroom lessons and sports practices to our service projects and time spent with friends. We want our students to understand that their unique voices and talents can be used to praise God and bless those around them.

ECONOMY CENTER NEEDS VOLUNTEERS: The Economy Center (408 Columbus Ave, Bay City) has operated with the help of volunteers for 65 years, but now illness and aging out are causing us to have to consider closing the store. Supporting the children and families of Wellspring Lutheran Services would end. This is not our first choice, but sometimes clerks don't work their shifts, so we have no choice but to close the store, and this upsets customers. We need people to price, restock, clerks or any way you can help. Both men and women can help! Call Larry Pretzer at 989-280-8343 for more specific information.

BOOSTER CLUB CORNER: Thank you, thank you to ALL for the success of our 42nd Annual Booster Club Weekend! Whether you volunteered on the serving lines or in concessions, baked desserts, washed potatoes, filled cole slaw and sour cream cups, helped cleanup, etc. or supported the event by attending, WE APPRECIATE YOU! Keep watching for the details of how many dinners were served this year!

Trinity's Athletic Booster Club not only supports the school's Panther Teams, but also maintains the pavilion and grounds (including the three ballfields) for our Trinity families and our community. Speaking of which, Save The Date for our Fall Cleanup on Saturday, November 1st at 9:00am.

SAVE THE DATE! Trinity Monitor's Wild Game Dinner Auction Committee has begun making plans for Event #9 to be held on Saturday, March 7, 2026 at the Great Hall in Midland! THE HOLY LAND CHRISTIANS: On Sep. 14 2025 and during both services, we will be hearing about the Christians of the Holy Land, and after each service we will be hosting at the church a nice display of handmade olive wood religious articles from Bethlehem available for purchase. These carvings include olivewood Nativity sets, crosses, angels and many other religious crafts. The carvings are handmade by Christian families from Bethlehem who rely on it for their daily bread. Please help support our Christian brothers and sisters in the town of Bethlehem where Christ was born by purchasing their carvings. A Christians family from Bethlehem will be telling us the story of the Christians of the Holy Land and they will be presenting these carvings after the services. All proceeds go to support Christian families from Bethlehem. Visit www.hlcsc.org for more information.

TRINITY LUTHERAN SCHOOL FIRST QUARTER MISSION

Concordia Theological Seminary in Fort Wayne, Indiana exists to form servants in Jesus Christ who teach the faithful, reach the lost, and care for all.

Identity: CTSFW is an institution of theological higher education of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod whose central purpose is to prepare men for the pastoral ministry, as well as men and women for other service in the church, through programs offering an understanding of the Christian faith that is Christ centered, Biblically based, confessionally Lutheran, and evangel- ically active.

Recognizing that most students live on a limited income, the seminary has established a co-op system to help provide for the needs of the seminarian and his family.

Food Co-Op: The Food Co-op provides roughly 75% of the grocery needs of student families. In addition to food, commonly needed household items are also available. Students volunteer time each month in order to utilize the Food Co-op.

Dry and canned food items, toilet paper, paper towels, tissues, personal hygiene items, health care products, cleaning supplies, and disposable diapers are always welcome donations. Additionally, monetary donations are used to purchase food at low cost through local food banks.

Clothing Co-Op: The Clothing Co-op provides a wide variety of new and gently-used clothing for men, women, and children. Kitchen supplies, bedding, and home decorating items are also available. Students may utilize the Clothing Co-op for free. There is always a need for new or used clothing in good repair for all members of the family.

Please keep the Food Co-op and Clothing Co-op in mind when you are cleaning and purging. As you come across useful items that you no longer need, bag or box them up and bring them to school. All year long, Mrs. Dent collects items to take for her next trip to the seminary. Her beige Buick LeSabre is unlocked and parked by fire door #3. If your donation will fit in the back seat, please put it there. Otherwise, to pop open the trunk, open the driver side door and push the button on the lower door panel.

If you have questions about what is needed, here are 2 good questions to ask yourself: Is this useful to a person? If so, good! The students who attend the seminary are people! Is this something I would want to see my Pastor or his family members wear or use in their house? If so, good! Box it up and donate it! If not, it may be outdated, worn out, or stained beyond use.

If you have further questions, please feel free to ask Mrs. Dent, (email: kdent@trinitymonitor.org). She would be happy to share her experience with you as a seminary wife while Pastor Dent attended CTSFW.

At the Dome

Everyone enjoyed the music and speakers at the mass events each night. Worship and communion on Wednesday was also really meaningful and memorable.

Exploring New Orleans

We visited the French Quarter, the French Market, the World War II Museum, and the Riverfront Mall.

Extra Fun

After the gathering ended, we took an extra day to go on a swamp boat tour where we saw some alligators. Then we drove to Mississippi to visit the beach and swim in the ocean!

THANK YOU!!!

This amazing experience was only possible because of generous support from YOU, our congregation. We are so thankful for your donations and support of our fundraising efforts, but especially for your prayers.
